A fantastic variant of video poker that you really should try your hand at is called Double Double Bonus Poker. It is based on draw poker and is very rewarding, entertaining and simple to play.

The concept of the outstanding game is just like other video pokers, you need to build the strongest poker hand from cards issued by the machine. You are not competing against other players, human or computer. You build this hand by using the initial five cards or you can also take advantage of the option to hold some and acquire new ones to replace the discarded ones.

Although you need some luck it is useful to know the strength of poker hands as well as the knowledge of the probability to build or receive a superior hand. There are increased payouts for four-of-a-kind hands.
